

Stacy Chamberlain

AFSCME International Vice President and
Oregon AFSCME Council 75 Executive Director
Portland, Oregon

Stacy Chamberlain joined Oregon AFSCME Council 75 as a council representative in 2005. Stacy currently services as the Executive Director, prior to this appointment she served the Council as Collective Bargaining Director and Associate Director. In 2016 the delegates at International Convention elected Stacy as an International Vice President.

Prior to her work with AFSCME, Stacy worked as a legislative aide to a State Senator in the Oregon Legislature. Before graduating law school from Willamette University, Stacy clerked at the United States Attorney's Office. She later worked as an associate at a labor law firm in Portland and was a senior policy advisor to a former Portland City Commissioner Randy Leonard.

A Portland native, she brings with her a deep knowledge of labor and politics in Oregon. In May of 2013, Stacy was appointed to the Public Employee Benefit Board and currently serves on the Oregon AFL-CIO Executive Board.
